

#OutofFashion Workshop

24 April 2019

FOR LONG-LASTING TEXTILES THAT DON'T POLLUTE OUR ENVIRONMENT

11:00 - 11:30 Welcome and coffee

11:30 - 12:15 Panel Part 1 Short presentations (5-7 mins each)

- Professor Kirsi Niinimäki
Aalto University, Finland
How to design clothes in ways that don't harm the planet
- Ward Mosmuller
DSM-Niaga
How DSM-Niaga redesigns products from the ground-up
- Eline Boon
Ellen MacArthur Foundation
Make Fashion Circular

12:15 - 12:45 Buffet lunch

12:45 - 13:30 Panel part 2 Short presentations (5-7 mins each)

- Arthur ten Wolde
Ecopreneur
What policies can promote textile business models based on the repair, reuse, and rental of clothing?
- Silvia Ferratini
European Commission
Textiles in the Circular Economy
- Charlotte Ruud Granum and Siv Elin Ånestad
Framtiden i våre hender – Future in Our Hands, Norway
The interconnection between labour and environmental perspectives

13:30 - 14:30 Discussion

14:30 - 14:45 Coffee break

14:45 - 16:30 Parallel break-out group discussions on upcoming political opportunities and milestones

Break-out group 1: Durability in the textiles industry

Break-out group 2: Addressing chemical transparency in textile supply chains

16:30 - 17:15 Closing

Short feedback from break-out groups and final remarks

